Drawing of the new PAC ticket booth to be built in May 2018

In the winter and spring of 2004-2005, a committee of forward-looking citizens created the Performing Arts Center at Simsbury Meadows on Iron Horse Blvd in downtown Simsbury. This facility has added immeasurably to the quality of life in Simsbury and the Farmington Valley. It is often cited as a major factor in Simsbury's high ranking as a desirable place to live.

Simsbury PAC, Inc. is working on upgrades and enhancements so that it continues to be a major factor in the community's quality of life. But we need your help.

The new ticket booth will be built in May. It will be placed next to Rotary Park facing Iron Horse Boulevard and will offer convenient walk-up service. It has an attractive railroad depot-style design appropriate for Iron Horse Boulevard and other neighboring buildings.

The ticket booth will be built entirely with private funds. No tax dollars are involved. It will have four windows, plus a will-call window - creating more than twice the ticketing capacity.
