The Hartford Symphony Orchestra's Talcott Mountain Music Festival is an outdoor concert series held in the center of Simsbury, Connecticut. The summer line-up will open on June 28th with "Dancing in the Street – The Music of Motown" followed by the classic "Celebrate America," with fireworks on July 5th. On July 12th, the HSO will perform "Come Fly With Me" – a concert featuring songs by Frank Sinatra. The festival continues on July 19th with "Tchaikovsky at Twilight" and closes on July 26th with "The Music of Elton John". The gates for each concert open at 6:00 p.m. and the music begins at 7:30 p.m. To order tickets from the Hartford Symphony Orchestra and for pricing information for the concert series, please contact 860.987.5900 or www.hartfordsymphony.org Metro Bis is the preferred caterer for the concert series and will deliver to the pre-reserved tables at the front of the stage. Patrons seated on the lawn may pick up their order at Metro Bis.
